Call for Nominations for Featured Keynote Panel

In lieu of the traditional keynote address, the 2022 Southeastern Writing Center Association (SWCA) virtual conference will feature two keynote panels dedicated to elevating the voices, experiences, and practices of writing center practitioners:

- A panel made up of undergraduate and graduate tutors
- A panel made up of early-career writing center administrators

We are particularly interested in highlighting the voices of first-generation tutors and administrators. Each panel will be moderated by a scholar in the field who will work with panelists to develop a list of questions that will frame their roundtable discussion.

With the moderator, panelists will
- Title the featured keynote panel
- Develop questions for discussion
- Prepare remarks

Nomination Process
We invite writing center administrators to nominate student-tutors, colleagues, or themselves to participate on these featured panels. Submit nominations here.

Please include the following with your submission:
- The nominee's name, pronouns, email address, home institution, and role
- Nomination type (writing center administrator, self-nomination, or other)
- Nominator's name and email address (if not self-nominated)
- A 150-word rationale for the nomination, including proposed fit or contributions to the panel.
- If self-nominated, please include a list of questions or topics the nominee suggests for discussion

Applications and nominations are due via this form by January 5, 2022, by 11:59 PM.
