

SWCA Florida Tutor Collaboration Day 2020

The Challenge of Change Virtual Conference

November 13, 2020

Title	Presenter(s)	Discussion Topic	Time
Welcome and Opening Remarks			9:15 – 9:25
Cultivating Resilience: How Resilience Plays a Key Role in the Work We Do at the Writing Center	Rachel Neubauer Writing Specialist Daytona State College	Resilience with an emphasis on the fourth type of resilience, which is known as Rock Bottom Resilience.	9:25 am – 9:55 AM
Promoting Diversity and Inclusion in an Academic Setting	Jamie Montgomery Tutor Daytona State College alumni & Jerithza Quinteros Perez Peer Tutor Daytona State College	Being more inclusive to marginalized communities in higher education.	9:25 am – 9:55 AM
The Struggles of International Students	Synthia Salam Peer Tutor Daytona State College	Day-to-day struggles of learning new cultures, languages, and survival skills as an international student.	9:55 AM – 10:25 AM
Equitable Access to Essential Educational Services During the Pandemic	Robin Clark Writing Specialist Daytona State College	Access to computer/internet, dedicated work spaces, formerly in-person support services.	9:55 AM – 10:25 AM

	5 minutes	Intermission
Emotional Labor	Ariana Porter Virtual Writing Specialist Daytona State College	Emotional labor and how that intersects with digital space.	10:30 AM – 11:00 AM
Cultural Diversity in Writing Centers	Savannah Johnson Tutor Daytona State College alumni University of Center Florida – Political Science major	Using your position of power and privilege to create more diverse writing centers.	10:30 AM – 11:00 AM
Mental Health in Tutoring	Domonique Weston Writing Specialist Daytona State College	Anxiety and depression can be common among tutors How do we recognize it in ourselves, students, and other colleagues?	11:00 AM – 11:30 AM
Help-Seeking Behaviors	Billie Jo Dunaway Writing Center Coordinator Daytona State College	This session will discuss who uses our writing centers. What factors influence this? What are some strategies we can use to reach students in this new digital environment?	11:00 AM – 11:30 AM